The NCMA Tysons Program Team presents our monthly series, distinguished speakers and are the drivers of our Hot Topics, that keeps us informed and educated on the latest trend discussions of the Contract Management profession.

On behalf of NCMA Tysons, we thank you Liza Craig, Jim Suh and Kymiel Standifer for your team leadership, valuable contributions and your time commitment to this program year.

We honor and appreciate this outstanding team for their dedication and effortless delivery throughout the program year and for connecting members to thought leaders from a wide range of industry pools to engage and examine knowledge based content that drives performance. Learn more about these trailblazers on our website or through their LinkedIn media profiles.

Thank You for your service!
